"Last summer I made a recipe zine. I printed a bunch of them + people seemed to like it but I felt like there was so much more I wanted to include. I wanted to put together a load of easy, cheap, tasty recipes that could be easily adapted, in a way that was also fun to read. I wanted to talk about my ~feelings. For the second issue I'm opening grub up to submissions.

Send me: recipes, recipes with accompanying stories/memories, pretty much anything you want to write that mentions, either directly or indirectly food or drink. I'm not interested in this being about Healthy Eating, or any particular way of eating/cooking, I want to know about the stuff that makes you feel good, whatever that is. I haven't set a deadline, i guess I'll see how it goes."

◆『Grub #3』

"V excited to put out the next installment of Grub zine! Food, feelings, politics and potions ∴ This issue's got a bunch of simple recipes plus stories, poems and comix. It's a whopper."
